

School Sport Australia 12 and Under Golf Event History

SSA 12 and Under Golf commenced in Victoria in 2002 at Beaconhills Golf Club in Victoria. Competing states were NSW and Victoria. Rob Bowtell (Vic), Ross Abbott (NSW) and Mike Murray from Victoria Primary School Sports Association were the driving forces in initiating the first competition.

Brenda Carnavas (QLD) was the Golf National Secretary and worked to get the event running on SSA rules and guidelines and also contributed to QLD entering the competition. David Seeley (QLD) took over the SSA National Secretary role from Brenda.

Craig Parry was approached in 2002 to be the event patron because of his connection to both states.

QLD joined the competition in: 2006 (Mornington Peninsula)

SA joined the competition in: 2008 (Port Kembla)

ACT joined the competition in: 2015 (Newcastle GC)

WA have played once in 2017 at the Pacific Schools Games

First Nation team (Boys only) have played once in 2017 at the Pacific Schools Games

Golf was included as a part of the Pacific School Games (10th edition) for the first time in 2017 in Adelaide.
