B - 2.2 General

At least twelve (12) weeks prior to the commencement of the Championships the Championship Convener shall submit to all States / Territories a tentative program of matches. Any member body wishing to submit an alteration to the tentative program of matches must do so within two (2) weeks of receiving it. Any amendment to the program shall be circularised as early as possible to all States / Territories.

B - 3. Duration of matches

B - 3.1 Girls 15 Years & Under

B - 3.1.1 All matches shall consist of four quarters of fifteen (15) minutes in duration.

B - 3.1.2 In all matches there will be no 'time on' added (except for the Blood Rule, serious injury, stretchers and send off) with intervals of five (5), twelve (12) and five (5) minutes. Amended Sept 2016

B - 3.2 Boys 15 Years & Under

B - 3.2.1 For the seven (7) team competition the length of each quarter shall be fifteen (15) minutes.

B - 3.2.2 For all other competitions the length of each quarter shall be sixteen (16) minutes.

B - 3.2.3 In all matches there will be no 'time on' added (except for the Blood Rule, serious injury, stretchers and send off) with intervals of five (5), twelve (12) and five (5) minutes. Updated Sept 2023

B - 3.3 General

B - 3.3.1 The host member body is to provide an additional ball to be kept by the interchange steward as a strategy to save time.

B - 4. Game Protocols / Specific Rules / Results

B - 4.1 Order-Off Rule

B - 4.1.1 The umpire(s) in charge of a match may order a player from the field for a period of fifteen (15) minutes of actual playing time by use of a yellow card for:

B - 4.1.1.1 verbal harassment;

B - 4.1.1.2 abusive language;

B - 4.1.1.3 other unseemly conduct detrimental to the game;

B - 4.1.1.4 any reportable offence according to the 'Laws of Australian Football'.

- B - 4.1.2 Such player must report to the Interchange bench on leaving the field and before returning. The player will be in the control of the team manager while off the field of play. Updated Sept 2023
- B - 4.1.3 The player sent off may be replaced by an interchange player. When this occurs, the umpire must show the card to the Interchange bench and call time off. Time shall be signaled when the replacement player is in position. Updated Sept 2023
- B - 4.1.4 It shall be left to the discretion of the umpire whether the player sent off is reported.
- B - 4.1.5 For a second offence during the game the player must be sent off for the remainder of the match, shown a red card and be reported. He may be replaced by an interchange player.
- B - 4.1.6 The field umpire(s) may send off a player for the remainder of the match if, in his/her opinion, that player constitutes a menace to the physical wellbeing of other players. Such a player must be shown a red card, reported and may be replaced by an interchange player.
- B - 4.1.7 The field umpire(s) shall report a player by notifying the National Australian Football Advisor or the Championship Convenor within an hour of the completion of the game.

Interchange Rule

- B - 4.2.1 For both the boys and girls Championships, Any member body may name up to 25 players for any game, of which only 18 may be on the field at any one time. Updated November 2023
- B - 4.1.8 The ongoing interchange player must enter the playing arena through the defined area. The player leaving the field must leave through the defined area. Failure to do this will mean that he cannot return to the game. Updated Sept 2023

B - 4.2 Stretcher / Carry Off Rule

Any player who is injured during a match and who, in the opinion of a Doctor, Trainer of Official, requires the assistance of a stretcher, shall be attended by the Team's training staff and either carried off or on a stretcher as soon as possible to ensure the health and safety of the player. The normal process of notifying the umpire will occur and the player shall remain off the field for a period of twenty (20) minutes.

B - 4.3 40-meter penalty for Girls 15 Years & Under

A 40-meter penalty will be awarded rather than the 50-meter penalty for the Girls 15 Years & Under competition. Amended December 2020

B - 4.4 Wet Weather

Decision on wet weather day to be determined by the National Australian Football Advisor or the Championship Convenor in consultation with participating team managers and officiating umpires.

B - 4.5 Lasso rule for Girls 15 Years & Under

Between the 50-meter arcs, any kicks (including soccering,) and handballs that go out of bounds without being touched by another player, will result in a “lasso” free kick at that spot, to the nearest opponent.

Amended September 2022

B-4.6 Player or Crowd Dissent rule

If field umpires identify dissent arising from a decision or non-decision, they have the authority to award a free kick. This can be either;

- At the location of the ball (in the case of crowd dissent), or
- At the spot where the player committed the dissent, whichever results in the greater penalty.

If a free kick has already been awarded a (50 m boys, 40 m girls) penalty may be awarded in addition.

Added November 2025

B - 5. Points Allocation

For all matches three (3) points shall be awarded for a win, and two (2) for a tie and one (1) for a loss.

B - 6. Method of Determining a Winner

B - 6.1 For a Seven or less team competition teams shall meet each other on at least one occasion; and in the event of two or more teams finishing with equal match points, they shall be declared joint winners. Under no circumstances shall the percentage of points scored for and against be counted.

B - 6.2 For an Eight team competition where two teams are tied on points within their group, then the result of the match in which they played each other shall determine their position. When three teams are tied on points, then the percentage in the games where they played each other shall determine their position.

All teams will then play a Cross Group match in the following format:

1st Group A	vs.	2nd Group B	(Match 1)
2nd Group A	vs.	1st Group B	(Match 2)
3rd Group A	vs.	4th Group B	(Match 3)
4th Group A	vs.	3rd Group B	(Match 4)

- B - 6.3 Should a tie occur at the end of full time in any Cross Group match, the 'No Drawn matches' procedures in B - 6.4 shall apply to determine the winning Team.

The finals would then take place:

Winner match 1	vs.	Winner match 2	(determines 1st & 2nd)
Loser match 1	vs.	Loser match 2	(determines 3rd & 4th)
Winner match 3	vs.	Winner match 4	(determines 5th & 6th)
Loser match 3	vs.	Loser match 4	(determines 7th & 8th)

The National Australian Football Advisor is authorised to use some flexibility in the finals part of the draw (apart from the Grand Final) to ensure that teams have the chance to play teams that they have not already played, in consultation with the teams involved.

B - 6.4 No Drawn matches

B - 6.4.1 Playing of Additional Time

Should a tie occur in any Cross-Over Finals Match other than the Grand Final, the following procedure shall apply to determine the winning Team -

- B - 6.4.1.1 the Goal Umpires shall immediately consult with each other to confirm that the score of each Team is identical and if that is the case, the field Umpires shall signal to the Timekeepers that the Match is to proceed into Additional Time;
- B - 6.4.1.2 after a five (5) minute rest period (which shall commence from the time the Field Umpires signal that the match is to proceed into additional time), additional time shall be played;
- B - 6.4.1.3 each team shall maintain the same end as at the completion of ordinary time for the first five (5) minute period of additional time and shall change ends immediately after the first five-minute period;
- B - 6.4.1.4 upon receiving the signal by the Field Umpire, the Timekeepers shall sound the siren in accordance with the normal start of each quarter, being -
 - B - 6.4.1.4.1 two minutes prior to the official start time - three times;
 - B - 6.4.1.4.2 one minute prior to the official start time - twice;
 - B - 6.4.1.4.3 official start time - once.
- B - 6.4.1.5 except for the Coach and those persons permitted to enter the playing surface under Regulation 11.9, no person shall enter the playing surface during any period before or during the playing of Additional Time;

- B - 6.4.1.6 before the commencement of additional time, the Coach may enter the playing surface and address the players. The Coach must leave the playing surface on or before the sound of the three sirens signifying that two minutes remain before the commencement of additional time;
- B - 6.4.1.7 the Timekeepers shall sound the siren once to signify the end of each period of additional time until a Field Umpire acknowledges that the siren has been heard and brings play to an end;
- B - 6.4.1.8 at the conclusion of additional time, the team which has scored the highest points is the winner of the match;
- B - 6.4.1.9 if the scores are still tied at the end of the second period of additional time, in a game that requires a result, the siren shall not sound until a score is recorded.

B - 6.4.1.10 Ready to Play and Sanctions

Each Team shall move into position and be ready to commence play at the start of additional time. A team whose team is not ready to commence play shall be subject to a 6-6-6 sanction, i.e. warning if first violation in the game or free kick awarded if second or further violation.

- B - 6.5 Joint winners will be declared if at full time of the Grand Final match scores are tied.
- B - 6.6 Should wet weather interfere in the Championships, then the member body leading the competition shall be declared the winner. If two or more member bodies are leading the competition they shall be declared joint winners.
